

DV-alert

Domestic and Family Violence Response Training

1-Day focused workshop:

Multicultural

For frontline workers

About 1-day focused workshops

Attend our 1-day workshops to grow your knowledge of the complexities and nuances of domestic and family violence within different contexts.

Learners attending these workshops need to have previously attended any 2-day DV-alert workshops.

About Multicultural Workshop

- Identify and respond to the needs of multicultural clients who may be experiencing domestic and family violence
- Respond appropriately with immediate interventions and support needs of multicultural clients including safety planning
- Refer multicultural clients to appropriate services and support.

Enhance your skills with other 1-day focused workshops

There are a range of other 1-day workshops available that you can attend to enhance your knowledge and skills, including:

- Engaging with Interpreters
- First Nations
- Gendered Violence in Diverse Communities
- Men who Use Violence
- Women with Disability.

Nationally recognised training

Once each of the components of the DV-alert Assessment Pathway have been completed, you can enrol in the Assessment session. After successful completion of the assessments, you will achieve a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment for the unit of competency CHCDFV001 Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence.

Cost

It is free for frontline workers.

Financial support is also offered for staff backfill for attendance of the 2-Day Foundation workshops and 1-day focused workshops, and help with travel and accommodation is available in some cases.

Terms and conditions apply. Go to dvalert.org.au for more information.
